CHRISTMAS Gift Guide

2026

Thoughtful gifts for the people you know

BY LUIZ FAYE | 2 NOVEMBER 2026

Thoughtful gifts for the people you know

Some people are easy to buy for. Others say they don't need anything, then become remarkably specific when you suggest socks.

The best gifts often start with noticing: the colour someone always reaches for, the hobby they make time for, the small frustration they mention in passing. This year's Christmas edit brings together clothing with thoughtful details, colourful things for home, everyday comforts, stories, experiences and a little pleasure.

There are practical choices and treats, familiar favourites from our travel essentials guides and new names to explore. Each has room for the person receiving it: their taste, their routines and the things they enjoy.

For clothing, mobility aids and sensory products, a conversation about fit and preferences can be part of getting the gift right.

IN THIS EDIT

01 For the Christmas table 03

02 Getting dressed, your way 06

03 Home, with a little more colour 14

04 Everyday ease 18

05 Small rituals and a little pleasure 20

06 Stories, play and time well spent 25

A note from our founder 30

Papa Salt

Coastal Gin

£39.50 | 700ml | 42.8% ABV

For someone who enjoys discovering a new gin, Papa Salt brings a coastal Australian character to the drinks shelf. Co-founded by Margot Robbie and four friends, it uses native Australian botanicals for a savoury profile with a touch of minerality. A gift for the person who enjoys choosing what goes into their glass.

Shop Papa Salt at Sainsbury's

Brockmans

Agave Cut

£40 | 700ml | 41.2% ABV

A meeting point for the gin lover and the tequila enthusiast. Brockmans Agave Cut combines gin with Mexican agave spirit and pink grapefruit, bringing juniper and citrus to the glass. It offers something different for the person who enjoys choosing the drinks for a gathering.

Shop Brockmans Agave Cut

REAL

MEI Sparkling Tea

£14 | 750ml | 0.5% ABV

A bottle for the Christmas table with artwork worth lingering over. REAL's MEI pairs slow-fermented sparkling tea with a winter design by British artist Charlotte Mei. The sencha, jasmine and lychee expression comes in a limited run of 3,500 bottles, with the colours of its ingredients reflected in the label.

B.adaptive

Canvas Stretch Trousers

£44 sale price; usually £64.99

For the person who would happily wear their most comfortable trousers everywhere, these bring stretch to a smarter canvas finish. B.adaptive's trousers use a cotton and elastane blend with four-way stretch and an adaptive opening. They're an easy piece to build an outfit around, from a quiet afternoon to the family Christmas gathering.

Shop the Canvas Stretch Trousers

B.adaptive

Adult Adaptive Hoodie

£37.99 sale price; usually £74.99

The hoodie is a firm favourite for good reason. B.adaptive adds a neck opening and sleeve zip to make dressing easier, with an oversized fit and a longer back for seated coverage. Made from cotton, it brings thoughtful details to a piece many of us already reach for on repeat.

Shop the Adult Adaptive Hoodie

Lockwood

The Falklands

£480

For someone who is happiest heading outside, The Falklands is a substantial waxed-cotton smock made with Halley Stevensons fabric. An adjustable hood and waist, cotton lining and six pockets bring plenty of practical detail. Each jacket is individually numbered, with a ten-year guarantee and lifetime repairs offered by Lockwood.

LIAVELLA

AVAIA Petit

£399

A compact leather bag with room to change its mind. The AVAIA Petit comes with interchangeable straps, giving it different ways to be carried as outfits and plans change. Inside, there's space for essentials including a phone, passport and cards. A considered gift for someone who likes their everyday bag to work around them.

Liberté

Free to Be swimwear

£135 | Pre-order

A winter escape, a regular swim or a hotel pool worth making time for. Rachel Peru's Liberté brings its Free to Be approach to swimwear, with a collection that includes the black Classic Noir design. It's a lovely place to look for someone who enjoys choosing their next swimming costume as much as their next destination.

EDITOR'S PICK

Jolene

Premium Silicone Nipple Covers

£16.95 sale price; usually £24.95

For outfits where visible bra straps weren't part of the plan. Jolene's reusable adhesive nipple covers offer discreet coverage, with four shades and a storage case to keep the pair together. They're a familiar find from our travel essentials edit, and a small, useful addition to the dressing drawer.

Cool Crutches

Black Glitter Crutches & Black Folding Walking Stick

Black Glitter Crutches £233.99 per pair; Black Folding Walking Stick £94.99, including VAT

A little sparkle is entirely welcome in the everyday. Cool Crutches' Black Glitter pair brings a subtle shimmer to a walking aid, while the Black Folding Walking Stick folds down for carrying and storage. Both are available in black. Choose with the recipient so the style, fit and hand option suit the person using them.

VŌMA

Men’s EasyFit T-Shirt

£44.99

An everyday white T-shirt with a useful detail tucked into the shoulder. VŌMA’s EasyFit design opens along one shoulder seam using discreet magnetic fastenings, creating more room for getting dressed and undressed. It’s designed for people who find pulling on a traditional T-shirt difficult, while keeping the familiar look of a wardrobe staple.

Weirdstock

Los Felices & Cubanito organic cotton bedding

£165-£205 for a duvet cover and pair of pillowcases, depending on size

For the person whose home has never been accused of being beige. Weirdstock's Ibiza-inspired bedding brings pink and sunshine-yellow geometry to Los Felices, and tangerine waves with soft green to Cubanito. Both use 300-thread-count organic cotton sateen. Duvet covers and coordinating pillowcase pairs are sold separately, so you can put the right combination together.

La Suzy

Period Bed Mat

£39.99

Periods have a habit of ignoring the diary, including Christmas visits and nights away. La Suzy's reusable bed mat adds a protective layer where it's needed, with a quilted cotton-rich top, an absorbent middle and a waterproof backing. It measures 100 by 75 centimetres and comes with a travel bag for packing between stays.

All About Sleep

Bamboo Sleep Mask

£29.99

For the traveller, the afternoon nap enthusiast, or the person who would quite like the curtains to work harder. This bamboo-fabric sleep mask has a broad elasticated strap and comes with its own pouch. Another familiar favourite from our travel essentials edit, ready for the bedside drawer or the next overnight bag.

Homefulness

Silver Organisation Package

£995; storage products cost extra

For someone who has said they would love a hand getting their space organised, Homefulness offers time and practical help. Its Silver package includes a 30-minute on-site consultation, two organisers for three hours each, and shopping and design support. The recipient can work with the team to decide what would make their home easier to use.

Gift vouchers are valid for 12 months. The service covers Central London and Cambridge; other locations and travel costs are agreed separately. Any storage purchases are additional and agreed with the recipient.

Sequence Health

Pillar AM/PM Pill Organiser

£17.99

Useful things can make very good presents, especially when the design has had some thought. Pillar's AM/PM organiser has two sliding trays for a week of morning and evening tablets or supplements. The slim format makes it an option for a bedside drawer or travel bag, with the two daily sections kept together.

Wype

Starter Kit

£11.99

We couldn't put together a guide to everyday comforts and leave your bottom out. Wype's starter kit pairs a reusable pump with 100 millilitres of fragrance-free gel, which is applied to toilet paper before use. A compact bathroom addition for someone who already enjoys the product, or wants an alternative to using wet wipes.

Alyce King

Becoming a Wheelchair User: Knowing What I Know Now...

Kindle from £5.99; paperback from £10.98 (new and used offers)

Sometimes the most useful starting point is hearing from someone who has already asked the questions. Alyce King brings together what she wishes she had known when she became a wheelchair user in the UK. Covering acceptance, sport, equipment, relationships and charities, the book shares experiences, resources and practical ideas for wheelchair users and their loved ones.

A NOTE FROM OUR FOUNDER

Give the gift of taking part

Alongside The Inclusive Edit, I'm also the founder of Kronik Warrior UK CIC, so this final invitation is a personal one.

Our work brings people together through inclusive activities, including adaptive boxing and fitness, creative sessions and food activities. We adapt around different mobility, sensory, communication and energy needs, making room for people to take part in a way that works for them.

If you'd like to give something beyond the gift list this Christmas, a donation can help support that work. There's no set amount here, just an invitation to contribute if you're able, or to share what we do with someone who might enjoy being part of it.

Thank you for helping us make more room for taking part.
